

CAKES FOR CANCER

We know you are aware of the upsetting news regarding Mr Moir, and as something that is so close to everyone's hearts, being former Parkwood pupils, we wanted to step in and do what we can to help. Six years ago, aged 11, we held a bake sale to fundraise for Macmillan Cancer Support, in which we prepared and carried out everything ourselves, and learnt a lot along the way. We are using this experience in order to fundraise for a good cause again, but in this case it's for the headteacher that we all know and love, so that he has access to life-prolonging treatment. However, this will only be possible with your help.

On Friday 8th December, after school, we will be holding a bigger and better bake sale in which you can purchase (cash only) an end of the week treat to aid in supporting Mr Moir and the challenge that him and his family are facing. Prices will range from 50p to £2. For this to be as successful as possible, we rely on generous donations from you, and other family members of your child, not in terms of money, but cake!

As of Monday 4th December, please bring in any variations of cakes, cookies and pastries, that you have made or bought - it doesn't matter which! We understand the difficult position that many families are in regarding the cost-of-living crisis, so by no means is it a requirement for you to donate, it's simply helpful if you can. Any products that you provide, please take them to the old junior dining hall. Due to allergies and intolerances, we ask that any products you have bought remain in the original packaging with the ingredients listed, and any homemade items have the ingredients listed on the container. Please also label containers with your child's name and class so that we can return them in the following week.

For any queries, don't hesitate to email us via jesskemp64@gmail.com

We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible to support our mission to help him.

Thank you,

Charlotte Maycey and Jess Kemp
