

Behaviour, Emotional and Social Development

Name of Assessment Tool B/G- STEEM
Authors: Barbara Mains & George Robinson Published: 1988 Standardised
Description
A standardised scale for measuring children's self esteem and 'locus of control' (external or internal). Designed to assist in the planning and evaluation of interventions. A standardised score self-esteem and locus of control. Child answers questionnaire with yes/no answers. Responses then scored as very high, high, normal, low or very low. For evaluating changes in children resulting from new programmes and interventions. Child's response to individual items could be explored further through discussion. A4 book and CD available.
Age Range
6 years -13 years
Who can administer
Teachers, SENCO trained TA's and Learning Mentors
Administration. How long does it take to do? When? How often?
Paper and pencil tick sheets (group or individual). A few minutes to administer and score. Paper sheets - photocopiable Computer presentation, text and voice with automatic scoring (only for individual pupils). No time limits on re-administration.
Individual or group test
Individual, but can be given out to a group if literacy levels and behaviour are adequate.